

I'm against hr4026 I use the weather and traffic reports on my xm radio for my job as a truck driver all the time . I like what xm does and it's a clear channel with no static I subscribe to xm and I don't want to go back to the old type radio that you have to be within a short distance to receive their signal so please don't let n.a.b. make us go back to antique methods again